Dear Ms Hawari Bourjely,

Last Tuesday's devastating explosion in Beirut, which has caused an appalling number of human loss and anguish, deep sorrow and unimaginable calamity, shocked the entire community of mediators across the Mediterranean.

In these truly testing times for all of the citizens of Beirut city, and of Lebanon on the whole, I feel the need to share with you my profound grief and express my wholehearted solidarity and affinity with you and the suffering people of Beirut.

Respectfully,
